

NEW RELEASE:

A MEMOIR

about

CATHY BAO BEAN

a Chinese Confucian who teaches western Philosophy and Aerobics and

BENNETT BEAN

a Caucasian Jeffersonian who practices Tibetan Buddhism and makes art who gave stories to their son

WILLIAM BAO BEAN

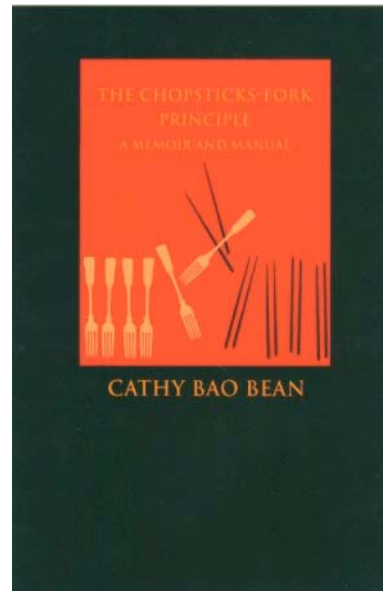

so he could revel in the profusion amongst the tableware and be at least bicultural (in Northwestern New Jersey)

Their endeavors culminated in

The Chopsticks-Fork Wedding

an occasion for all - except the Canada geese - to celebrate similarity and diversity.

The Chopsticks- Fork Principle

DATE OF PUBLICATION
DECEMBER 1, 2002

$15.00

We Press

Contact Amy Hufnagel
908-684-3574; email
wepress@rtonline.net

Contact the author for personal appearances 908-852-7426;
www.cathybaobean.com

A MANUAL

about

How to say "I love you" in English and in Chinese

Whether identity crises and toilet training are more stressful with or without a subconscious

If The Menopausal Theory of Cooking is gender specific

What a child of hippies can do to rebel most effectively

If the Tooth Fairy can survive The Melting Pot

How to draw cultural lines in the sand of time spent at home, then at school, then places we may or may not want to imagine

The Chopsticks-Fork Principle

A Memoir and Manual

Please return the following information with your check. Shipping is guaranteed within 2 weeks of publication date for orders received in advance.

Name: _____

Address: _____

City _____ State _____

Zip _____

Email _____

Phone _____

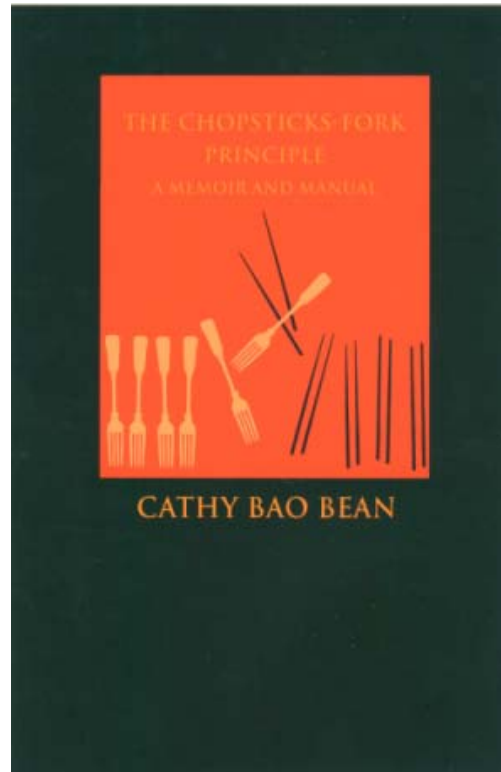

Number of copies _____

($15.00 per copy- preorder price; plus $3.00 per first class shipping and handling)

Please make check payable to: We Press
P.O. Box 436 Allamuchy, NJ 07820

Texts are also available through Small Press Distribution after December 1st.
Write or email SPD 1341 Seventh Street
Berkeley CA 94710

Email: orders@spdbooks.org

www.cathybaobean.com